Text of Circular No.04/2017 dt.31st January, 2017

Dear Comrades,

UFBU DECIDES FOR ALL INDIA BANK STRIKE ON 28th FEBRUARY, 2017 STRIKE CALL BY BEFI, AIBEA & AIBOA STANDS WITHDRAWN

Today a meeting of United Forum of Bank Unions (UFBU) was held in Delhi.

UFBU felt the need for launching agitational programme including strike in view of the developments that are taking place in the industry and the lukewarm attitude of the central government and IBA towards employees and officers' pending issues.

After threadbare discussions, UFBU decided to give call for an All India Bank Strike on 28th February, 2017 against banking sector reforms, on recovery of NPA, demonetisation related problems and on other pending issues of employees and officers.

NOBW and NOBO asked for some time to communicate their opinion to UFBU on participation in the strike slated for 28th February, 2017.

Nine General Secretaries/one representatives from each organisation will meet on 5th February next in Mumbai to fine tune the issues and demands of the strike and prepare the strike notice.

Further circular with preparatory programme will follow after the aforesaid meeting of representatives of UFBU to be held in Mumbai.

In view of this development, strike call given by BEFI, AIBEA, AIBOA and all related programme stands withdrawn.

ON TO ALL INDIA BANK STRIKE ON 28th FEBRUARY, 2017

With greetings,

Yours comradely,

(PRADIP BISWAS)
GENERAL SECRETARY
